Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

Shared National Talent service

DRAFT — requires human legal review before use. Based on the Business Partner NDA template; the client details are placeholders.

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT ("NDA") is made on ...../...../2026 (the "Effective Date").

BETWEEN:

(1) Business Partner Solutions, a limited liability company under the laws of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Commercial Registration no. 1009014355 (Unified National Number 7038825860), Riyadh, represented by Mr. Baher Bakr Ali Magnas, General Manager ("Business Partner").

And;

(2) [CLIENT_NAME], a company established under the laws of [JURISDICTION], address [ADDRESS], Commercial Registration no. [CR_NO], represented by [SIGNATORY_NAME], [TITLE] (the "Company").

1. PURPOSE

1.1 The Parties wish to discuss and carry out the "Shared National Talent" service — the assignment, management and development of Saudi employees working part-time or flexibly for the Company — and related services (the "Purpose"), and each may disclose confidential information to the other for that Purpose.

DRAFT

2. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

2.1 "Confidential Information" means all information, in any form, disclosed by or on behalf of a Party in connection with the Purpose, including company documents, employee and candidate information, identity details, salaries and contracts, work plans and client information, pricing, proposals, methods and know-how, and any information a reasonable person would regard as confidential.

3. OBLIGATIONS

3.1 The receiving Party shall keep Confidential Information strictly confidential, use it solely for the Purpose, protect it with at least the care it applies to its own confidential information, and not disclose it to any third party except as permitted by Clause 5.

3.2 Personal data of employees and candidates (including identity details, salaries and performance records) shall be handled only by persons who need it for the Purpose and shall be protected in accordance with applicable law, including the Personal Data Protection Law.

3.3 Employees assigned to several companies: information of one company is not shared with another company served by the same employee, and the employee is bound in writing by the same duties.

4. EXCLUSIONS

4.1 Confidential Information does not include information that the receiving Party can show (a) was public before disclosure or became public other than through its breach; (b) was lawfully known to it before disclosure; (c) was lawfully received from a third party without restriction; or (d) was independently developed without use of the Confidential Information.

5. PERMITTED DISCLOSURE

5.1 A Party may disclose Confidential Information (a) to its directors, employees, and professional advisers who need to know it for the Purpose and are bound by equivalent confidentiality duties; (b) to confidential service providers engaged for the Purpose (such as payroll, insurance, training, and cloud and AI processing providers) under confidentiality obligations; and (c) to the Saudi government authorities (including the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Development, the General Organization for Social Insurance and ZATCA) to the extent necessary to carry out the Purpose.

5.2 If disclosure is required by law, court order, or regulator, the receiving Party shall, where lawful, notify the disclosing Party promptly and disclose only what is required.

6. RETURN AND DESTRUCTION

6.1 On written request, or when the Purpose ends, the receiving Party shall return or destroy Confidential Information and confirm in writing, except copies it must keep by law or for its legitimate record of the services.

7. TERM

7.1 This Agreement applies from the Effective Date for two (2) years. The confidentiality obligations continue for three (3) years after the end of that period, and indefinitely for personal data and trade secrets.

8. GENERAL

8.1 No licence or right in the Confidential Information is granted except as stated. Nothing here obliges either Party to enter into any further agreement; the services and fees are governed by the separate Service Agreement.

8.2 A breach may cause harm that damages alone cannot remedy; the injured Party may seek injunctive relief in addition to other remedies available at law.

8.3 Relationship with other agreements: no service agreement between the Parties supersedes or cancels this Agreement, and any "entire agreement" clause in such an agreement does not apply to it.

8.4 This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and the Courts of Riyadh have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from it. It is made in Arabic and English; if they differ, the Arabic text prevails.
